

THE WESTERN FRONTIER: A Dateline Activity

In the Treaty of 1783 that ended the Revolutionary War, England gave the U.S.:

- Its freedom.
- All the land between the 13 colonies and the Mississippi River. Part of this land was called the Northwest Territory.

On the map below, USE RED BOOK, P. 193 FOR HELP!

- Color the Northwest Territory red.
- Color the original 13 colonies yellow.
- Color the Ohio River blue.
- Color the Mississippi River green.

Then complete the map key, using the information above.

Using the map, answer the following questions.

1. Before the Revolutionary War, the western boundary of the U.S. was set at the _____ Mountains.
2. In the Treaty of 1783, the western boundary of the U.S. was set at the _____.
3. The Northwest Territory is north of what river?
4. The five Great Lakes separate the U.S. from what country?
5. The _____ Ocean is the eastern boundary of the U.S.
6. Name two states made from the Northwest Territory?
7. Name two of the original 13 colonies?

MAP KEY
COLOR	KEY
<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>