

CURRENT EVENT

CURRENT EVENTS MUST BE CURRENT...NOT FROM AN OLD ARTICLE!!!!!!

1. On your own sheet of paper write a summary at least $\frac{1}{2}$ a page long of what you read in your own words. Your summary should include who or what this article was about. You will also add 5 important key facts to the bottom portion of your summary page.
2. Once you finish writing your summary, (which should be at least $\frac{1}{2}$ a page long) and your key facts, answer the following questions in complete sentences on this page.

- a. What caught your attention the most about this article?
- b. What was interesting about the article?
- c. When and where did the event in the article take place?
- d. Why do you think this story was important enough to be in the news?
- e. What did you learn that you didn't already know from this article?

3. Attach your summary to the back of this paper along with your news article in the correct order.